

Matt Dice

Purdue Extension

Noble County 4-H Youth Educator

Extension - 4-H Youth Development

Education:

MS Degree – Purdue University '09

-Youth Development and Agriculture Education in Curriculum and Extension

BS – Purdue '04

-Agriculture Education

Former teacher in agriculture education – 18 years – Many classes from Vet Science, Food Chemistry, to Ag Mechanics & Welding.

From: Albion

Wife: Destiny

Kids: Kaylee, Brodey, Creed, Hendryx

Hobbies: Sports, farming, showing livestock

Noble County 4-H Program

- Extension Education Program
- Federally chartered and a government program
- 500 members in Noble county
- Various projects & learning clubs
  - 13 community clubs with focus on citizenship
  - Project learning clubs include: bicycle, ATV, petroleum power, shooting sports, archery, dog, various livestock, horses, and more.
  - Over 50 community learning workshops a year
  - July county fair in the summer is the showcase for learning projects – over 75 different projects are showcased.
  - Popular projects are: photography, crafts, cake decorating, wood working, garden, and more

